

Office of Fellowship Training

Talks and Seminars – November, 2009

DATES MAY BE SUBJECT TO CHANGE: Please e-mail fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu to confirm

Fellows, faculty and others are welcome to attend

Date & Time	Speaker	Title of Talk	Location	Contact Person
Monday, November 2, 2009 2:30-3:30pm	Jay J. Schnitzer, MD, PhD , Associate Chief Medical Officer, Vice President of Clinical Sciences, Boston Scientific Corporation	Opportunities for postdoctoral research fellows in biotech, and a look at daily life: An informal discussion for postdoctoral research fellows at Children's Hospital Boston, seeking employment in the biotech industry	Karp 9 th floor conference room	Please register with Fern Remedi-Brown, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu – refreshments provided
Wednesday, November 4, 2009 2:00-3:00pm	This is a series – with different faculty participating on each date	Job Talks: Xiaohua Shen, PhD , Instructor, Division of Hematology/Oncology, who is currently in the job market will give her prepared job talk, “ Polycomb Proteins in Epigenetic Regulation of Stem Cell Pluripotency ” to faculty members Helen Christou, MD, Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, Division of Newborn Medicine; Gabriel Corfas, PhD, Professor of Neurology; and Matthew Warman, MD, Professor of Genetics, Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery, and Director of Orthopedic Research Labs, Children's Hospital Boston, and an audience of her peers (fellows)	Karp 8 th floor conference room	Please register with Fern Remedi-Brown, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu – refreshments provided
Thursday, November 5, 2009 3:30-4:30pm	Fern Remedi-Brown, M.Ed., Coordinator, Office of Fellowship Training	New Fellows' Orientation	EN 844 (Enders 8 th floor conference room)	Please register with Fern Remedi-Brown, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu – refreshments provided
Thursday, November 5, 2009 4:30-5:00pm	Fern Remedi-Brown, M.Ed., Coordinator, Office of Fellowship Training	New Fellows' Orientation for new international fellows	EN 844 (Enders 8 th floor conference room)	Please register with Fern Remedi-Brown, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu – refreshments provided
Friday, November 6 2009 12:30-1:30pm	Chaoshe Guo, MD, PhD , Research Fellow, Department of Urology, Children's Hospital Boston	OFT Basic Science Journal Club: “PRDM16 controls a brown fat/skeletal muscle switch”	Karp 8th floor conference room	Please register by November 4 th to Fern Remedi-Brown, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu – lunch provided
Thursday, November 12, 2009 1:30-2:30pm	Beth Beighlie , Desktop Computing & Research Imaging Support, Harvard Medical School	Imaging: “Getting Your Point Across” Learn tips for effective communication when using PowerPoint. Practical Do's & Don'ts for Researchers and Instructors	Byers A/B conference rooms, Enders Building lobby level	This is being co-sponsored with the Office of Faculty Development – fellows register at fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu
Monday, November 16 through Thursday, November 19		Last week of the Fall Semester of English as a Second Language (ESL), sponsored by the Office of Fellowship Training		In order to participate, postdocs must have their PI's e-mail the Office of Fellowship Training, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu
Tuesday, November 17, 2009 3:45-4:45pm	Artists to be determined	Musical performances in conjunction with International Day	Location to be announced
Wednesday, November 18, 2009 5:30-7:30pm	Alan Leichtner, MD , Associate Professor of Pediatrics, Division of GI/Nutrition; John M. Costello, MD , Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, Cardiac Intensive Care Unit; R. Gregory Webster, MD , Clinical Fellow, Department of Cardiology; and Patrick Taylor, Esq. , Deputy General Counsel	Job Search for Clinical Fellows TOPICS TO INCLUDE: *The Clinical Job Search *Getting Your First Job after a Clinical Fellowship For clinical fellows and senior residents and their significant others	Karp 7 conference room (map link, http://www.childrenshospital.org/patientsfamilies/Site1393/Documents/CHB_LoingwoodCampus_map.pdf)	Please register by November 11 th with Fern Remedi-Brown, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu – light dinner provided – co-sponsored by the Medical Staff Organization, the Office of Fellowship Training, and the Office of Faculty Development
Thursday, November 20, 2008 2:00-4:30pm		The second annual jointly sponsored Children's-DFCI International Day (5 th annual for DFCI): a gathering of nations, with displays representing the mosaic of countries, cultures and languages that make up the Dana-Farber and Children's Hospital Boston families. Countries will represented by arts, crafts, cookbooks, recipes, photos, music and videos. Delicious international food will be served.	Dana 1620 (Dana Building, 16th floor) Dana-Farber Cancer Institute	No need to RSVP. Contact person is Fern Remedi-Brown, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu

		There will also be live music and dance performances.
Monday, November 23, 2009 12:00-1:00pm	Albert Sean Chiou and Jessie Tao , Harvard Medical School students, and their mentor, Li-Li Hsiao, MD, PhD, Instructor, Renal Division, Brigham and Women's Hospital and Director of the BWH Asian Renal Clinic	OFT Clinical Discussion Session: "Renal Health among Chinese-Americans: a service project"	Center for Life Sciences (CLS) Building, 14th floor conference room	Please register by November 16 th to Fern Remedi-Brown, fellows.office@childrens.harvard.edu – lunch provided
Tuesday, November 24, 2009 NOTE TIME: 12:15-1:15pm	Monthly luncheon and networking discussion facilitated by fellow chairs Jason Dearling, PhD, Research Instructor, Division of Nuclear Medicine, Department of Radiology, and Clare Mehta, PhD, Research Fellow, Division of Adolescent Medicine, (a developmental psychologist by training), Children's Hospital Boston	Fellows Career Progression and Life Management (formerly Career-Family Balance) 2009-10 Network Luncheon Series: Ross Greene, PhD , Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Harvard Medical School and author of The Explosive Child and Lost at School and originator of the Collaborative Problem Solving approach (http://www.livesinthebalance.org), " Challenging Behavior as a Developmental Delay: Implications for Assessment and Treatment "	NOTE LOCATION: Folkman Auditorium (formerly Enders Auditorium, Enders Building)	Please register by November 17 th with Clare Mehta, clare.mehta@childrens.harvard.edu – lunch provided – co-sponsored by the Office of Fellowship Training, the Office of Faculty Development, and Children's Hospital Library