Children's Hospital Boston is participating in Shaw's Supermarkets "Pack 2 School" event hosted by Marc Brown, author of the bestselling Arthur books and Emmy Award winner for the Arthur series on PBS.

The event will take place on Friday, August 17th in City Hall Plaza from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Employees, patients and patient families are invited to attend.

Marc Brown will host a press conference with Mayor Thomas M. Menino and then perform two readings. Volunteers will stuff 10,000 backpacks with back-to-school items that will later be distributed at Shaw's Supermarkets. Shaw's is donating 250 backpacks to Children's patients who can't attend the event. The "Pack 2 School" campaign will run through September 6th at participating Shaw's Supermarkets to benefit young students in need of school supplies.
