

For the past 14 years, BCHNP has been a leading partner to Boston Public Schools and community health centers in addressing the social, emotional and behavioral health needs of children and adolescents.

A team of 19 members, including 15 clinicians, serving over 1,400 youth through:

PREVENTION & PROMOTION

Classroom Interventions
867 students

EARLY INTERVENTION

Care Coordination
136 students
Targeted Groups
146 students

CLINICAL INTERVENTION

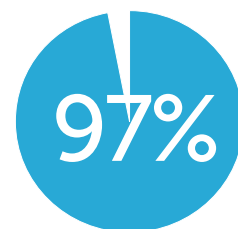

Crisis Intervention
204 encounters
Individual Therapy
51 students
Medication Management
185 youth

CAPACITY BUILDING

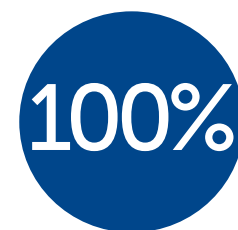

876 hours
of consultation, including 34
workshops with schools of school staff believes BCHNP helps their school better address behavioral health needs of school staff believes BCHNP helps their school support students' academic success of health center staff believes BCHNP helps them better address behavioral health needs

Who are our students?

- Black
- Latino
- White
- Multi-Racial
- Asian
- Other

Boston - Dorchester - Jamaica Plain - Roslindale - Roxbury - West Roxbury

We are rooted in our community, serving 12 schools and 3 health centers.

Learn more about us at childrenshospital/BCHNP

Boston Children's Hospital
Neighborhood Partnerships